Carlos Z

Professional Summary

Reliable and motivated worker seeking a part-time role with a predictable routine and supportive team environment. I am punctual, dependable, and work best when expectations are clear and tasks are well defined. I take feedback seriously, follow directions, and enjoy hands-on work such as stocking, organization, and putting items away. I'm looking for an opportunity to continue building skills and contribute positively to a friendly workplace.

Strengths & Transferable Skills

- Dependable attendance and punctuality
- Takes direction and feedback well
- Works independently after training
- Efficient with routine, structured tasks
- Stocking, organizing, and unpacking supplies
- Cash handling and basic math skills
- Helpful, cooperative team member
- Learns best through hands-on practice

Preferred Work Environment

- Part-time schedule (approximately 6–9 hours per week)
- Short shifts (around 3 hours), preferably before noon
- Consistent days and times each week
- Back-of-house or low-customer-interaction setting
- Small team or quieter work environment with clear routines